JOSEPH

MOSES

JOSHUA

The main idea of Joshua 24:14-24:

Because God delivers His people, our hearts should be inclined to Him.

The following questions can be used during a family worship time. Take time as a family this week to talk about the Story and what you are learning as you read. The hymns on the next pages are from our worship service. Sing them together as a family during your family worship time this week.

Discussion questions:

When was the last time you helped someone? What did you help them with? Do you think it is important to get something in return when you help others?

What do you learn about God for the story of the salvation of Rahab the prostitute?

How did Joshua challenge the people in his final speech?

What are your personal habits and commitments when it comes to Bible study? How can your family encourage you to grow in your love for God's Word?

As a family:

Make a commitment with together with your family to take specific steps to follow God's will, resist temptation and battle against apathy and kill sin by the Word of God. Together share who you each choose to ask to pray for you and keep you accountable to keep up the good fight.
